President's Report

This season got under way with covid-19 still around, but thankfully it had very little impact on our season, other than forcing some improved hygiene practices. It was yet another example of the benefits of living away from the large metropolitan populations.

We were able to again complete the season after being forced to stop so close to the end in 19-20. Congratulations to Orange City, Gladstone and Cavaliers on winning the Second Grade, Third Grade and Centenary Cup premierships respectively. For Orange City it was a return to the second grade winners circle after what would have been a disappointing 19-20 for their club. Cavaliers won their first Centenary Cup title in their return to that grade. For Gladstone, it was their second premiership in third grade in the past 3 seasons which will prompt a move up to second grade next season.

Congratulations to Orange City for winning their second consecutive BOIDC title, and 4th consecutive title including the 2 previous ODCA first grade premierships.

We were able to expand the Royal Hotel Cup to 12 teams with all 10 BOIDC teams included plus Molong returning after a hiatus of 5 seasons and Lithgow Lightning also included. The 4 pool format wasn't a success with the players, although there was some fantastic cricket played during the season. We will be looking to make changes for next season to provide more matches for teams. Rugby Union were the form team of the competition, winning all 5 of their matches on their way to claiming their first ever Bonnor Cup title.

It was fantastic to see the Carl Sharpe Centre of Excellence opened this season and getting so much use. This facility will certainly change the way we train, firstly providing a lot more opportunities for our players to train out of season, but also change the way we do things during the season.

On the representative front, our players didn't see the same opportunities as previous seasons, with weather playing its part. 2 of our Western Premier League matches were washed out, and the team was only able to win 1 of its 3 remaining matches. Hugh Le Lievre and Ed Morrish were both selected for the Western Zone opens team, while Mitch Black and Fletcher Rose joined them in the Central West Wranglers side this season. Our Colts team also had their first match washed out at the Zone Colts carnival washed out but had a victory over Dubbo on the Sunday. From our boys, Blake Weymouth, Harry McGregor and Nelson Shepherd were all selected in the Zone Colts side. Mac Webster and Ben Schofield, who both played first grade for Orange clubs also gained selection from the Chairmans X1 side.

We again hosted a veterans state championships with the over 60s visiting us in early March. Wade Park also played host to the Under 19s womens country challenge and the under 16 boys country challenge in February, which were played in place of the usual state challenges this season.

Thank you to our sponsors who all help to make the season possible. The Royal Hotel continued their support of our T20 competition while Phocas, Kookaburra and the Parkview Hotel also maintaining their financial commitment to Orange cricket.

A massive thank you goes to my committee and all of the other volunteers who have helped to keep our season moving. Volunteers are the very core of our sport and without them there simply wouldn't be cricket to play. I would encourage everyone to consider taking on a role at your club or association, even just a small role. Every little bit helps.

I look forward to seeing you all again next season.

BOIDC First Grade

Ten teams again contested the BOIDC First Grade premiership. Orange City claimed their second consecutive premiership defeating St Pat's old Boys in the grand final.

A full wrap up of the BOIDC season is available in the BOIDC Annual Report.

Winners: Orange City CC

A grand final with a grand conclusion.

Orange City claimed a thrilling two-wicket triumph over St Pat's Old Boys in the Bathurst Orange Inter District Cricket association decider at the Sportsground last weekend, thanks to an inspirational, backs-to-the-wall ninth-wicket partnership.

The visitors edged past the Saints' 193 in the dying stages of Sunday's second day, guided by a gritty, unbeaten 28 from player-of-the-game and wicketkeeper-bat Troy O'Keeffe, who survived 119 balls to get his side home.

He and young, gun quick Harry McGregor added a match-winning 30 for the ninth wicket after Orange City lost 4-8 the middle order, with McGregor dialling in defensively to support his gloveman with an unbeaten 1 from 48 balls.

Royal Hotel Bonnor Cup

Winners: Rugby Union CC

Twelve teams contested the Royal Hotel Cup T20 competition this season with all BOIDC teams included for the first time ever. Teams were divided into 4 pools, playing 2 matches in their pool before the two highest placed teams progressed to the quarter finals.

The bottom placed teams from each pool competed in the consolation finals series, to provide every club with at least 3 matches. The new format didn't prove to be overly popular with the clubs, with a return to a 2 pool system mooted for next season.

In the news: Mick Delaney and Zimbabwe's Vusi Sibanda join CYMS' Bonnor Cup side

OCTOBER 28 2020 - David Fitzsimons CWD

CUP STAR: Mick Delaney (pictured) and Zimbabwean international Vusi Sibanda will join CYMS for the opening Bonnor Cup clash against Kinross.

CYMS' bid to make its first Royal Hotel Cup final in six years has received a massive boost with the signing of a Zimbabwean international star as its marquee player.

Vusi Sibanda, who has more than 150 international caps at Test, one-day international and Twenty20 levels, will open the batting for CYMS in its clash with Kinross at Wade Park on Friday night.

And the team will be further boosted with the return of Mick Delaney, who is also set to play some regular seasons games for CYMS.

Sibanda played international cricket for 13 years from 2003 to 2016. That includes 14 tests, 127 ODIs and 26 Twenty20 internationals. The right-handed batsman and medium-pace bowler has played in both the ODI and Twenty20 World Cup tournaments.

CYMS captain Hugh Le Lievre said Sibanda had relocated to Canberra for work. He said the 37-year-old Sibanda was captaining the Eastlakes club in the ACT first grade competition and was involved in coaching for Cricket ACT. Sibanda has been encouraged to join CYMS through Delaney.

"He mentioned he was pretty keen to play in [various] competitions," he said. Le Lievre said it was unclear whether Sibanda would be available for any more games. "I don't know because the games are so spread out this year," he said. "We will have him for as many games as he is available."

Delaney's big-hitting was a key part of CYMS' charge for the Royal Hotel Cup last season. Back in January he hit 95 runs off 52 balls, including 11 fours and four sixes, to help seal victory over Orange City. It followed a strike of 111 in his previous game against Centennials. That came off just 61 balls. However, Delaney was out for only three runs in the semi-final and CYMS ultimately lost to St Pats Old Boys.

Le Lievre said after the team had reached the semi-final stage in recent years, they wanted to go one step further and make the final this season.

"That would certainly be our goal, Le Lievre said they wanted to select a multi-skilled line-up instead of having to rely on individual efforts. "We're picking a team where everyone from one to 11 can bat and bowl and field," he said.

CYMS last made the Royal Hotel Cup final in 2014-15 when it beat Cowra by 66 runs to claim the title. It remains the club's only win in the competition after making the final at four previous attempts. Kinross has played in one final, losing to Cavaliers in 2009-10 by five wickets.

So far this season Rugby Union has defeated Centennials Bulls with Ryan Peacock top scoring for Rugby Union with 90 runs. St Pats Old Boys beat City Colts with Nic Broes top scoring with 61 runs and he also led the bowling with 3-12 off four overs.

Third Grade

Premiers: Gladstone CC

6 teams contested the Third Grade competition with Gladstone and Spring Hill dominating right from the outset. Gladstone proved to be the team to beat as they went about securing their seventh third grade premiership and their second in the past 3 seasons.

A series of T20 matches was played during January as part of the main competition. After finishing level with Gladstone on points, Spring Hill claimed the T20 title due to their superior net run rate.

In the news: Frank Weymouth is anticipating a tonne of improvement in the coming years

1 February 2021 – CWD

WENT DOWN SWINGING: Blake Weymouth was one of a dozen Orange players who gave it their all during Sunday's defeat against Dubbo. Photo: BELINDA SOOLE

It wasn't the result he was after but Bluebaggers' coach, Frank Weymouth 'couldn't be prouder' of his young side in the wake of a nine-wicket loss to Dubbo on Sunday, a force that he marked as 'the benchmark' of the Western Zone Competition.

It's been a tough campaign for Orange so far as it's failed to win throughout two matches, falling to Bathurst in the opening assignment, and now Dubbo in round four.

But, it's not all doom and gloom for the men in blue... in fact, Weymouth has a rather optimistic approach. And why wouldn't he?

After all, this team has been thrown into the deep end with a very raw roster. "The average age of this team is 19," Weymouth said. "Throughout the first two games, not a single one of these blokes have given up or stopped trying. "The side [Dubbo] we played on Sunday was a cracking team... that's where we want to be in three years."

Weymouth spoke heavily about the progression he hopes to see the side make in the next few seasons as the players who are now 17-18 years old will be entering their prime then.

And even though there's a stack of optimism within the side, Weymouth admitted that the side lacks experience.

"Ed Morrish and Hugh Le Lievre anchored the ship for us on Sunday but I wish there were more experienced guys like them who would put their hand up," he said. "I'd love a Matt Corben in the side... he's the best keeper in Orange, he's one of the best sticks in Orange, and he's been one of the leading cricketers in town for a good while.

"But, when these blokes are unavailable, what can you do?"

That's the issue the outfit has faced throughout this campaign as a host of rep-ready athletes have withdrawn from the competition leaving a group of talent, but inexperienced guys to carry the load - with the exception of Le Lievre and Morrish, the former turning one on in round four with a team-high knock of 57.

"If we can keep this group together, we're going to have a very strong side," he said. "But, I could not be prouder of the team right now. The commitment they showed was sensational and they're truly playing for each other."

In the news: Orange closed out its WZPL campaign with a resounding win over Parkes

14 February 2021 - CWD

Tom Belmonte.

Tom Belmonte was stoked to see his Blue Baggers finish the 2020-21 Western Zone Premier League season on a high as Orange took out Parkes by 29 runs at Riawena Oval on Sunday afternoon.

The home side put 139 runs on the board as Belmonte (42) played a huge part in the run-scoring side of things before the bowling staff played tremendously, wiping out Parkes' batting order in quick fashion.

And while the victory means a boost on their ladder positioning this summer, it means more for years to come as he thinks it's a confidence-building result.

"It gives us some good momentum to work into next year," Belmonte said. "Hugh Le Lievre was there to lead us for that and so will Frank Weymouth."

The first innings total wasn't one you'd consider big, but Belmonte was confident in his side's bowling staff. "I felt good about our bowling attack," he said.

"It was still something for us to defend. Sometimes those totals - even though you feel confident as a batting team - can be hard to chase.

Credit goes to the bowling attack... they did really well." Jarryd Seib, Mitch Black and Hugh Le Lievre all wreaked havoc on the Parkes' batsmen, something Belmonte spoke about.

"They were all really good but when Seib came on, that really changed the game. He got a couple of wickets in one over and blew the game wide open," he said.

It was a tough season for Orange and Belmonte feels as though it was made harder by some disruption early on.

"We were a bit unlucky with a few of those wash outs," he said.

"If we got to play in those it might have been a different story."

Dubbo and Bathurst are set to square off in the grand final after Dubbo's final-round defeat gave Bathurst the chance to host.

In the news: Orange victorious against Dubbo in Western Zone Colts carnival

Sunday 6 December 2020 – CWD

WINNERS: Colt's cricketers embrace Harry McGregor after taking the final wicket against Dubbo.

Orange were the big winners over the weekend in the Western Zone Colts tournament, but it could have been even better had it not been for inclement weather.

The team was drawn to play Bathurst on Saturday and was on for a big score according to head coach Colin Starkey. But a downpour of rain brought an end to the match early. "Very disappointed about Saturday," he said. "We were 0-40 after 14 overs before the rain came and we were setting up for a big total of around 250 and that would have won us our first game. "So they had to wait until Sunday when they took on Dubbo. Orange won the toss and elected to bat first but got off to a shaky start, falling to 5-67.

Angus Cornish steadied the ship and guided his side to 9-144 off their 50 overs. "Dubbo bowled well, we lost a few quick wickets which put us under a bit of pressure," Starkey said. "The field was a little bit slower than we anticipated but we set a competitive total. "Angus, for 14 years old, batted 30-odd overs and just basically stabilised the innings for us and is a future talent to watch. "In reply, Dubbo also lost early wickets at the hands of Harry McGregor and Hugh Middleton.

But in a surprise to nobody, Dubbo start batsman Tom Coady brought his team back from the brink with a well-played 50. But he too would eventually fall to the bowling of Nelson Shepherd and with that brought a Dubbo batting collapse. It was McGregor who finished things off for Orange as they ran out 25 run winners.

"Credit to Tom Coady from Dubbo who batted really well, put his side in a potential winning position," Starkey said. "They just couldn't capitalise and kept losing wickets consistently through the innings. Our boys took all their catches and didn't give up in the field. "Honestly, the intelligence of Blake Weymouth as Orange captain, his field positions were one of the things that won us the game. "The other game featured a Chairman's XI and Bathurst. It was the Chairman's XI who batter first and set a more than respectable target of 174 thanks to scores of 48 and 50 by Darcy Callaghan and Ben Schofield.

In reply, Bathurst captain Ethan Muller (45) and Tom Siede (33) set the match up for a tight finish. Muller departed but was replaced by Fletcher Norris (27) who helped guide Bathurst to victory in the 49th over.
